
gamin

Gamin is a Korean born NYC based multi-instrumentalist specialized for traditional Korean wind. She tours the world performing both traditional Korean music and cross-disciplinary collaborations. She is a scholar and designated Yisuja, official holder of Korea's Important Intangible Cultural Asset No. 46.

From 2000 to 2010, Gamin was the principal player at Korea's Nangye Gugak Orchestra. Gamin has received several cultural exchange program grants, including Artist-in-Residence at the Asian Cultural Council, and has collaborated in cross-cultural improvisation with world-acclaimed musicians, presenting premieres at Roulette Theater, New School, and Metropolitan Museum. Gamin was featured artist at the Silkroad concert, Seoul, 2018, performing on-stage with the founder, Yo-Yo Ma.

Since 2018, Gamin curated performances at the Center for Remembering and Sharing. For 2020, gamin was selected as artist-in-residency at the HERE Arts Center, NYC, and her album 'Nong' was released by Innova Records. Gamin's Carnegie Hall solo début, accompanied by her alma mater Orchestra, scheduled for March 2020, was postponed by Covid 19. In January 2021, Gamin was awarded the prestigious two year Fellowship.

<https://www.gaminmusic.com/>
